

Acceptable Documents - Non-Commercial Drivers' Licenses and Identification Cards

Effective July 31, 2009 revised rule 18.19.5.12 NMAC provides that the documents listed below are acceptable as proof of identification number, identity and residency for non-commercial drivers' licenses and identification cards.

	(4)
(1) (2)	(4)	(5)
Identification Number Identification Number or Identity Identity SS card required if eligible (but not both) 1 document required	NM Residency, age 18 or older 2 documents required	NM Residency, under age 18 1 document required
Note: At least one of the identification number or identity documents must include the applicant's date of birth	Note: Residency documents must not be more than three (3) months old.
used to provide documentary proof of the Applicant's identification number or identity. In the both of the wing documents to verify the icant's SSN: U.S., state, or local government-studend financial institution; or a sSSN and is or used to verify the SSN and is or a sSN must produce: In a Matricula Consular card issued by the Matricula Consular card issued by the february 1, 2005, by the lestican Consulate in Ibuquerque or El Paso; valid passport issued by their on individual tax identification ard or the policant's letter from the IRS suing the ITIN, so long as the ITIN card or the policant's letter from the IRS scompanied by a matricula onsular card dissued after ebruary 1, 2005, by the Mexican Consular card issued by the ITIN, so long as the ITIN card or the policant's letter from the IRS scompanied by a matricula onsular card dissued after ebruary 1, 2005, by the Mexican Consular card issued by the United States Military or Coast Guard or the Sex Mexican Consulate in Decard; a photo identification number or identification or disused by the U.S. government or by a state or territory of the United States [Note: Hospital birth certificate sized by a to territory of the United States [Note: Hospital birth certificate sized by a to territory of the United States [Note: Hospital birth certificate sized by the or territory of the United States or territory of the United States [Note: Hospital birth certificate sized by a to territory of the United States [Note: Hospital birth certificates.]; an original or certified copy of a foreign birth certificate sized by the result or territory of the United States [Note: Hospital birth certificates.]; an original official copy of a foreign birth certificate or foreign birth	Applicants 18 years of age or older must provide two of the following documents, showing the applicant's NM residential address, as proof that the applicant lives in New Mexico: a real property rental agreement or purchase agreement; a utility bill, such as water, gas, electric, waste, telephone, cable or satellite bill, but not a bill for a cell phone; an insurance bill or other document verifying current coverage such as automobile, home or health; a bank statement; an employment pay stub that contains the applicant's name and address; a local property tax statement or mortgage documents; proof of a minor child enrolled in a New Mexico public, private, or tribal school; a current, valid motor vehicle registration; original documents from a New Mexico community organization attesting to the fact that the applicant is a NM resident; original documents from a city, county, state, tribal or federal government organization attesting to the fact that the applicant is a NM resident; a New Mexico medical assistance card; or a New Mexico public assistance card.	Applicants less than 18 years of age must provide one of the following documents, showing the applicant's NM residential address, as proof that the applicant lives in New Mexico: • proof that the child is enrolled in a New Mexico public, private, or tribal school; • a bank statement; • original documents from a New Mexico community organization, or from a city, county, state, tribal or federal government organization, attesting to the fact that the applicant is a NM resident; • documents from membership in a New Mexico religious organization; or • documents from membership in a New Mexico sports organization; or • an affidavit (MVD-10021) from the applicant's parent or guardian stating that the applicant lives with that person, as long as the affidavit is accompanied by the parent/guardian's New Mexico driver's license or identification card, or two proofs of the parent's or guardian's New Mexico by their country of citizenship. Note regarding lost licenses and IDs:

ID DD-2).

A person applying for a driver's license or identification card that was lost can use a New Mexico driver's license photo from the motor vehicle division (MVD) database as proof of identify and identification number, subject to MVD's ability to verify the applicant's social security number or other identification number used to obtain the driver's license or identification card, as sufficient proof to issue a replacement driver's license or identification card.

identification number.

residency.